We are thrilled to announce the launch of DualCore Fitness's Sound Bath Teacher Training program! Led by expert instructors Tara Heston and Rian Borland, this unique hybrid certification course will equip you with the skills to confidently lead transformative sound baths.

By joining us in person and online, you will explore the art of sound therapy, practice with different instruments, and experience hands-on sessions. Gain valuable experience through personal practice, observation, and teaching opportunities.

Don't miss this fantastic opportunity to deepen your knowledge and skills in sound therapy. To learn more or sign up, visit our website using the link provided below.

Take the first step towards becoming a certified Sound Bath Teacher today!
