At IMX Pilates & Fitness Union Square, our Pilates-based approach helps women navigate menopause with mindful, targeted movement that supports your body's changing needs.

Why Pilates works for menopause:

- Builds bone strength at a time you need it most
- Supports your pelvic floor and core muscles
- Improves circulation, reducing hot flashes
- Boosts serotonin to stabilize mood changes
- Promotes deep relaxation for better sleep
- Strengthens the body without stress on joints

You'll move better.
